Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Year 13 PSHE Curriculum

We are writing to inform you about the lesson content for Y13 PSHE that your child will be taking part in this year. Below is an outline of the PSHE Big Ideas and lesson topics that will be covered within them over the course of the year. They are listed in sequential order to demonstrate when they will be presented to students, and how the topics build on each other and on the prior learning of students in PSHE at KS4 and Y12.

Relationships and Sex Education:

Sexism

Relationship safety

Adult friendship

Abortion and pregnancy options

Families and parenting

Infertility and reproduction

Celebrating Difference and Diversity:

Social justice

Social justice through a religious lense

Life Beyond School:

What is debt?

Payday loans and borrowing

Taxes and the UK

Pensions

Savings – budgeting/university/self-living

Managing household budget

Managing student finance

Student debt decoded

Property renting and buying (mortgages/decision making)

Money and wellbeing

Rights, Responsibilities and British Values:

‘Honour’ based violence

Online subcultures and extremism

Politics – party standpoints

Race

Health and Wellbeing:

Wellbeing tips and revision advice and check-ins

Please be aware that there will be assessment lessons within this lesson sequencing, in order to evaluate student confidence with the new content, with the aim of correcting errors or misconceptions that may arise.

PSHE lessons often cover sensitive subjects, and this may lead to your child asking questions at home. We take great care in the delivery of this content, and in our support networks at school, but please be aware that your child may come home with questions to discuss with you. The issues are raised and discussed in an appropriate manner for the year group involved and a network of support professionals will be available in school during and after.

We would also invite parents and carers to read information found on our website to support your discussions and provide further guidance from the appropriate external sources.

In the meantime, please contact me directly at rburgoyne@dhfs.uk with any queries that you may have.

Yours sincerely,
